Accident to Farm Hand

While operating a feed chopper at the C.P.R. Farm on Thursday, back of the old headquarters, A. R. Wilkinson was seriously injured. He had been removing the cover on a feed chopper, which was choked, and one corner of the cover struck the fan. The cover was violently thrown out, striking Wilkinson, who sustained a severe gash on his chin, and had two chest fractures, besides other injuries. He was attended by Dr. Moore, and afterwards taken to Calgary hospital, where he is reported to be doing as well as can be expected.

Discount Period Extended

Concession to Bow Valley Taxpayers On Account of Unsettled Weather.

At their meeting on Thursday, the Council of M. D. Bow Valley decided to extend the period of 5 per cent. discount on all current municipal and school taxes to November 30.

Owing to the weather, little threshing has been done, and consequently farmers have been unable to realize on their crops. It is to be hoped that by November 30 threshing will be completed or nearly so, and the action of Bow Valley Council is dictated by sound common sense.

Threshing Resumed To-day

I avoided the wetter holds, threshing will be in full swing today, after a shut-down of practically five weeks, caused by weather conditions. Heavy rains fell on Saturday morning, but it is stated to have done more good than harm, as it washed off the snow where it had been adhering to the north side of the stacks.

A number of the Eastern harvesters who came here for the threshing, have left on account of the long break. Some outfits, however, have retained their men during the wet spell. There will be a big demand for labour this week, if the weather continues good.

DOCTOR MOORE IS COUNCILLOR

Nominations were held on Monday for two councillors for Strathmore Town Council, to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Dr. A. W. Givrin and Chas. Keeling.

Dr. T. W. Moore was the only nominee, and was therefore declared elected by Returning Officer Lilly. It is stated that the Council will endeavor to get along a number short until the regular election in February.

The almost unimpaired condition of the roads the last week or two has made the school van driving very tedious indeed, keeping the children on the roads a long time, but there seems to be no remedy until the road condition improves.

Carseland is well represented in the Calgary schools this year. The following named young people are attending: Norma, Vivian, Phillips, George Garnett, and Nellie Gibson, while Doris Field, Isabel Mackie, and Pearl McVey, Milton Moorhouse are taking up high school work, and Margaret Dawson is taking high school work at Banff.

Why didn't Arthur Meighan tell us why we have to pay as much for a better manufacture in Canada, as for a better one made in the United States, with the duty added, and how he will make the blinder cost less by adding more duty?

LOCAL NOTINGS

The annual sale of purchased stock, belonging to the Strathmore Demonstration Farm, will be held at 10 a.m. on November 6, when 35 head will be offered.

A fine dance was put on in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening by the Rainbow eight-piece orchestra, from Calgary. There was a large turnout. The various specialties, including songs by "Curly" Nixon, dance exhibitions by Alex Powell and Myrtle Duffy, and Percy Proverbs on the piano-accompanied, were popular with the crowd. The supper was put on by the Iris Patrol Girl Guides.

A Chendle man was the victim of a practical joke the other day. On account of bad roads he walked into Strathmore by the track. Shortly after he had left information was passed to Strathmore that a suspicious character in leather jacket, etc., had been hanging around Chendle all day, and was now on his way to Strathmore. The recipient in turn informed the Town Constable, with the result that the local sleuth went down to the station to interview "leather jacket" on his arrival, and detained him when he reached the platform. Arrival of a friend who identified him cleared up the mystery, but everyone was sore except the perpetrator of the joke.

The man who wrote "H. Aint Galt" To Rule 'Em" has been proved to be a fiction author.

Everybody went to Calgary by car last week and made good time despite the condition of the roads. It happened to be one of the latest Fort trucks.

Jim Ramage, of Deer Lodge Farm and lately of the Edinburgh constituency was visiting with J. A. Grant on Sunday last. Long chats about the beauties of Auld Reekie and surrounding districts were discussed. Mr. Grant being stationed at Edinburgh and both with the imperials in the early nineties, started to take one's mind off the past six weeks.

TAKE AN INTEREST

In and around Strathmore and the country generally there is not as much interest in the coming Federal election as there has been in some of those held in former years. This should not be. To some extent it arises because of the alterations made in the constituencies as a result of redistribution. Strathmore, for instance, is in the same constituency as Drumheller, where before they had been aligned with Calgary. The Conservative or Liberal conventions didn't have a single representative from Strathmore, and the U.F.A. had one representative. This is not as it should be. More interest should be taken.

It is not possible for all men and women to hold the same view. It is only by divergent views that progress is made. Therefore, no matter what stand an elector stands on, what action he takes, it should be counted for him rather than held against him, provided that his motives in taking such action are dictated by his desire for the welfare of his country.

Each candidate will express his views at some point where it will be possible for the elector to hear him, and it is incumbent upon each elector to attend, so that he may get the argument for each one, and cast an intelligent vote.

In this election the Standard, while independent, is lending its editorial support to the candidature of E. J. Garland, the U.F.A. Nominee. Our reason for this is that in our opinion the present situation of Canada demands a policy or policies taking Western requirements into consideration. Furthermore, the Progressive candidates have no duly newspaper support in Alberta, these organs being lined up with one or other of the older parties, and the weeklies do not give some publicity to the views of the Progressive candidates their viewpoints will not have an opportunity of expression in the press.

The proposal of ex-Premier Meighen as expressed in Calgary, is that Alberta coal should be sent to Ontario for less than cost, the taxpayers generally paying the subsidy. Besides that give the manufacturers of Ontario a coal subsidy in addition to their tariff protection, why not subsidize them to move their factories and work people out where the coal is. This move would only have to be made once whereas if the coal subsidy is carried started it will be difficult ever to remove it, and our Western development will be still further retarded.

Let us remember that the Liberal party in this election is making no proposition to further reduce the tariff, or for further extension of the British preference.

Alberta at the present time is in the position of a colony of the older part of Canada. All the Eastern provinces have control of their own natural resources. Ours are controlled from Ottawa. These resources were promised to the Government which has just called to Alberta, but were never turned over. We are at present in receipt of a coil of a small amount per head of population as a consolation.

Authority to develop the Spray Lakes was refused to the Government of Alberta by the Department of the Interior. If that request had been granted Strathmore might now have electric light and power, instead of tinkering away with two or three gasoline lights in the streets.

Our banking system is being centralized in two cities in Canada. Our only large Western bank only a couple of months ago, was absorbed by an Eastern concern. The progress of centralization has gone too far already. We can arrest the centralization of our politics by electing men whose policy is dictated in the West, not two thousand miles away.

The Ford Motor Company of Canada, made a profit of over $6,000,000 in the year ending July 31, 1925. The Ford Company enjoys the benefit of a tariff of 35 per cent. The Ford Company's profits do not stay in Canada. The extra price paid by Canadian car buyers on account of the tariff does not go to the government, but to the car manufacturers, hence the Ford six million profit.

The Canadian farmer does not want tariff protection from the Government. All he wants for the manufacturer to stand on his own feet, not on the farmers'. It is probably all right to keep the tariff against goods from the States so long as they have tariffs against us, subject to a provision that the manufacturers do not employ the tariff to gouge their customers. But why a tariff on British goods? Britain lets Canadian goods and produce in free, she supplied Canada with cash for the produce she buys to the extent of $200,000,000, last year, while all we buy from her amounted to but $150,000,000. And yet we make our best customers' goods pay a tariff in addition to the handicap of a long haul by boat and rail.

The people of the West gained much through the presence of the Progressive party in Parliament during the past four years. They will continue to gain by again returning them.

The best way to induce the States to give us entry to their markets would be to let British goods into Canada free of duty. The States would not be Canada's import business go to their strongest competitor without an effort.

EXHIBITS FOR INTERNATIONAL

Two thousand farmers in the province are being notified by the Dept. of Agriculture of the forthcoming International Hay and Grain Show at Chicago, from November 23 to December 5, at which Alberta farmers have always been prominent exhibitors. Farmers who intend to exhibit, this year are asked to have their entries into the Provincial Department of Agriculture by November 3rd, as all entries must be in Chicago by November 9. Exhibits are to be shipped to the seed cleaning plant of the Department at Edmonton, from where the Department will pay freight or express to Chicago. The exhibits are to be in place in Chicago by November 23. The Department is offering again an honorarium of $100 for each grand championship won by an Alberta farmer, and $100 for each first prize.

Readers will see from our Standard notes that Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Poole, formerly of the Strathmore Hardware, and latterly in Calgary, are now living in Standard, Mr. Poole having purchased the store of the Alberta Mercantile Co. at Chancellor.

Several changes are reported on the staff of the Demonstration Farm. Mr. W. Sutermeister, who has been book-keeper at the farm for the past year, left last week, and will be succeeded by Mr. Leslie G. Campbell, who formerly occupied the same position. Mr. A. D. Batty has been transferred to the company's farm at Condoile, and left for there with Mrs. Batty and family last week.

Dr. Hawkes, a British lady doctor, who is on a tour of Canada, spent the weekend at the Demonstration Farm.

Alastair McGregor, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hector McGregor, has been seriously ill with pneumonia and influenza for some weeks past, and was taken to Calgary on Saturday for further treatment.

Mrs. S. Moore and daughter returned to Strathmore on Sunday.

TOM MAKES LOVE TO LILA WHILE JIM CALMLY SMILES

Can you imagine, dear reader, a red-blooded man calmly smiling and nodding his approval while another man makes love to his beautiful wife?

Yet this paradoxical situation occurred at the Paramount Long Island Studio not so very long ago and occasioned no surprise whatsoever. The principals in this unique triangle were Thomas Meighan, James Kirkwood and Lila Lee, who in private life is Mrs. James Kirkwood.

When Jim arrived unexpectedly at the studio, he found his wife very busy receiving the romantic attentions of Mr. Meighan, while director Victor Heerman urged them on. But Jim didn't care—he knew their love was real!

It was only for a scene in "Old Home Week," Thomas Meighan's latest Paramount production, showing at the Memorial Hall Saturday.

TO TAKE OVER POULTRY MARKETING PLANT

Arrangements for the taking over of the provincial government poultry marketing plant by the provincial poultry pool are under way between the officials of the pool and Jim Gray, Hon. Minister of Agriculture. This service has been in operation for some years, and has formed a substantial nucleus for the new pool.

E. J. Garland's Career

The present sitting member for Bow River constituency, who has again been constituted as U.P.A. candidate at their convention in Calgary on the 1st inst., is the son of the late Dr. J. P. Garland, of Dublin, Ireland, born 1885, educated at Trinity College and Dublin University, was Sr. Sophistic at time of leaving for Canada in 1909, and after working in various capacities through Quebec and Ontario, came West in 1911, where he again had a varied experience of employment, amongst them being a day labourer on the Calgary streets, and the times he assisted in planting.

Housed at Rumsby 1911, when he has ever since participated in the joys, disappointments and other miscellaneous vagaries which accompany the career of the pioneer prairie farmer. On the U.P.A. being organized in Rumsby, he was one of the first members, and in its various activities he found full scope for his boundless energy, he was made secretary-treasurer. In 1919 of Rumsby U.P.A. Local: elected president the following year. President of the Hand Hills Constituency Association. Director of Starland Agricultural Society. Sec. Treas. of Munson and Big Valley District Association. Sec. Treas. of Bow River Constituency Association. Elected to Provincial U.P.A. Executive 1921, and in December of same year, was elected representative to the Dominion Parliament for Bow River Constituency. Was married in 1916 to Miss Alfreda Williams, daughter of John Ewing, of Rowley, Alberta, and has three children.

Baintree

Miss Emily Lambourne was a visitor to Calgary during the first three days of the week.

The members of the Community Club were entertained by Mrs. B. O. Wyman on the afternoon of the 7th. The wretched condition of the roads prevented the use of cars, but nothing daunted, a large number of ladies reverred to their fatherly friends of other days, old Dobbin, and the buggy. A delightful afternoon was spent in discussing coming social events, and listening to music provided by the hostesses and Miss Roberts. Afternoon tea was served by Mrs. Wyman, and the proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of "God Save the King."

After a surgical operation performed by Dr. McEachern, Mr. F. W. Logan was confined to the Holy Cross hospital for a few days last week. Frank is now fully restored to health, and, like the rest of the community, is looking forward to the renewal of threshing operations.

In all his wisdom, largely gathered on the path of sorrow and adversity, never did the immortal Lincoln display his knowledge to mankind better than in the following words: "The man who never made a mistake never made anything."

Princes and Lords are but the breath of kings, An honest man is the noblest work of God.

The death of "Christy" Matheson removes from this earth the most beloved, as well as one of the greatest exponents of the great American game of baseball. "Big Six" was the idol of millions of fans, and his influence helped in many ways to further the sports and keep it clean and fair. Although he has gone to meet the reward that comes to all who play the game of life faithfully as he did, his name will continue to live in the annals of sports as an example of all that is best in the human race. Surely there is no greater form of that fleeting thing which men call "fame."

Neither Mr. King, Mr. Meighan, nor Mr. Forke will address the Baintree citizens on the issue at stake. This is very deplorable to many who would like to hear them within the sacred precincts of the village school house. Like the leaders of their respective parties, the speaker try have also forgotten the existence of our small but thriving town, for as far as we can learn, no political meetings of any kind will be held here. This is also very unfortunate, and should not have been allowed to occur. Perhaps this will move the eyes of someone who is interested in the welfare of their party. The three-cornered contest in this riding will be much closer than it was at the last election, and those who are under the impression that a certain party will have a walk-over, had better wake up. Earnest efforts are now being made to have a polling booth established here at the forthcoming election, and if the efforts are successful it will be a great boon to many on the great day. Don't be too busy to cast your vote, folks. Perhaps yours is the one that will be needed. Don't forget "old slum" that the franchise is a gift from stupid and valiant men of a bygone day, many of whom sacrificed their liberty and blood in order that you and yours might have the privilege of helping to direct the destiny of your country. Use it!

Tutor! that little one you told last week was "rude gold." Another jibe it will tickle us to death. Please do.

Having nothing new to entertain us on the anniversary of our advent into this vale of joy, we composed two more verses of our infamous poem entitled "When the Cows Don't Come Home."

It's nice to be a farmer.

When the stocks are in a row,

An' yer crinials on the prospects,

Of some bacey an' some dandy,

How you sing in your elation.

Till the stormy breezes blow,

Then you tell to all creation,

What you think of rain and snow.

Then you grab the spud-ends, and

Till yer achin', tired, an' sore,

An' the cook-ee frowns upon you,

As you nix the cabin floor.

Now you pike to rest an' slumber;

Till the dream an' loudly snore,

"Till the Ben" goes off like thunder,

An' you find it snowed some more.

M. D. Grasswold Meets

It took almost certain that the Sports Day will have to be postponed. The weather has been such that it has been impossible to make any preparations.

Most of the school fair prize money has now been paid. In two cases the schools have not yet paid their entry fees, and in four other cases the prize lists sent to teachers for necessary corrections have not been returned to the secretary. As soon as the entry fee is paid or prize lists returned, checks will be forwarded.

The following is the final standing of the schools and the points obtained: The first column is for shield awarded for school work, the second for shield awarded for agricultural classes, and the third for total points.

Buy At Home

No doubt (says the Western "News"), an Edmonton farmer's weekly income, farmers who have purchases to make during the fall period, will remember where their interest lay in the period preparatory to "Harvest Home", and will, when possible, confine their remittances to their own district. It should be borne in mind that "wealth is in the West," as is being biased toward eastern manufacturers, there is very great reason that in when wealth is not in the West, and at those times, interest in the individual becomes an important provincial factor.

In a farming country such as Alberta a restricted view of the principle "buy at home" should be considered an essential to good business, and the advertising campaign of big newspaper syndicates, using such slogans as those mentioned above, strikes a disconcerting Eastern note.

Boy Scout Notes

FIRST STRATHMORE TROOP

Scouts and Wolf Cubs are now going ahead with their training, and the officers are of the opinion that in a very short time all the boys enrolled will be able to pass the preliminary tests as rapid progress is being made.

There are no vacancies for Scouts at present but four more boys between the ages of 8 and 12 can be accepted for the Wolf Cubs.

All Wolf Cubs are asked to note that they will meet on Thursdays during October at 7 p.m. at the club room instead of Wednesdays, in order that their attention will not be attracted to the work of the Scouts at such meetings. The Monday meeting will remain the same till further notice. The meetings for Scouts will be the same for the remaining part of the month.

Any person having a Wolf Cub in use will grant the Troop a good turn if it will they are in a position to buy one for the club room, and the undersigned will assure the owner of its return in good order.

All Scouts and Wolf Cubs are requested to read the Scout Oath, this paper each week, as space is being allotted to us by the editor for Scout Notes.

Keema Notes

Work has recommenced on the Community Hall, much to everybody's delight. Prospects of a dance in Keema in the early future are rosy. We understand a splendid view is obtained from the roof, especially when clinching by a hammer. Many happy moments were spent sliding down the scaffolding. Numerous advisors were on hand, aiding words of wisdom in the clang of the hammers.

Fox farming has been started in the district. Mr. Hasky being the pioneer.

Mrs. Charlie Thompson entertained at her home on Friday evening. The time was spent in dancing, and listening to speeches of the political candidates through Mr. Thompson's loud speaker. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Several of the young people braved the roads to Irricana and drove to the dance last Tuesday, and reported a good time.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Galloway on the birth of a little daughter, Lilian Mary.

It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a car to go through Keoma. Mrs. Stein's committee of "No Man's Land", the only ray of sunshine was the thought that it is good weather for ducks. O' Canada!!!

The most urgent requirement in Canada's Agricultural Products

CANADA produces every year large quantities of wheat, oats, barley, butter, cheese, bacon, beef, eggs, apples, potatoes, grass seed and clover seed that she cannot consume. Her natural outlet for these products is, of course, Great Britain—the one great consuming country of the world with an open market.

Unfortunately, nearly every other country with any surplus of food products seems to want to send its surplus to this same market.

The keenness of the competition on this, our only market, and the energy and resourcefulness of our competitors began to impress themselves upon the Department of Agriculture some time ago, but it is only within very recent years that the real and only way to grapple with this problem has been discovered, or at least put into effect. This Department now believes, as do also most of the farmers of this country, that the "grading" of our agricultural products is the policy and practice that is seeing us through the struggle and will assure us of our rightful place on the British market.

"Grading" means the classifying of products, whether they be wheat, butter, cheese, eggs or anything else, into three grades, the highest being "BEST," "GOOD," "FAIR" and "POOR" classes.

These exact words are not used in describing the grades, but that is what the purpose served in grading is a threefold—

(1) Educational. When the producer's relative quality of his product he is spurred on to maintain that quality if it is the "best" or to improve the quality where necessary.

(2) Fair Play. When products are not graded the inferior article for various reasons often brings as much as the superior article, and the credit and advantage of putting the superior product on the market is lost to the one who really deserves it.

(3) Facilitating Trade. The dealer learns to have confidence in the article he is buying and buys more freely, because it is guaranteed by grading, and gradually everybody gets to know what the "best" article really looks like or tastes like. In short, grading brings about standardization and ensures to the producer the best price.

Canada now grades her cereals, grass seeds, hay, potatoes, apples, eggs, butter, cheese, wool and bacon hams. The results have been every one can be beneficial and in some cases quite markedly so. The grading system has been in effect in some cases for only two or three years, thus:

Cheese—Grading began April 1st, 1921. Canadian cheese the year before had fallen into this disfavor on the British market that New Zealand cheese was quite commonly preferred. Today Canadian cheese commands a premium per pound higher than New Zealand.

Butter—Grading began some time ago for cheese. The reputation of our butter was then indeed at low ebb. Canadian butter today, while not the best on the market, is rapidly improving in quality and gaining in reputation.

Hogs—Over two years ago the Department of Agriculture began to grade live hogs at the packing houses and stock yards. The 10% premium paid by the packers for "select" bacon hogs as against "thick smooth" was classed by departmental graders has done wonders to improve the quality of our hogs and develop the bacon industry.

Best Canadian bacon, which ordinarily was quoted two years ago from 10 to 10 shillings a long hundredweight below Danish, has gradually grown in the estimation of the British wholesale buyer until it is now quoted at about 10 or less to at most 5 or 6 shillings per long hundredweight below the best Danish.

This improvement in price is, of course, due to quality and has come about very gradually, the spread narrowing down by a shilling or two a month until now it is not as a rare occurrence to see best Canadian selling at a par with the Danish article.

Eggs—Canada was the first country to grade and standardize eggs. These grades and standards apply not only to export, interprovincial and import shipments, but also to domestic trading.

The basis is interior quality, cleanliness and weight.

Standardizing Canadian eggs has established confidence between producer and consumer and between exporter and British importer, and has resulted in a greatly-increased demand for the Canadian egg both at home and abroad.

Other products might be mentioned where grading has worked to the great advantage of the producer and to the advancement of Canadian agriculture.

Already Great Britain recognizes our store cattle, wheat, cheese, eggs, apples and oats as the best she can buy.

It is for us to see how we can improve our other products, particularly our butter and bacon, so to bring them also into the list of the "best on the British market" and consequently the highest priced.

Grading enabled us to do this for cheese, wheat, eggs and apples.

Grading is enabling us to do it for butter and bacon.

"Darkest Strathmore"

—o—
And the Way Out

Shafts of light will pierce the darkness of Strathmore soon, when the scheme of Strathmore Town Council to provide street lights (to be exact, three lights) is in operation.

This contribution to the illumination of our town is not to be regarded lightly. Councils have grappled with this great problem since the town was founded, and at last the long continued effort has borne fruit in three gasolene lamps. To add to the effectiveness of this display it might be a good idea to have some Chinese lanterns hung at various points, and add to the quaint old world effect.

Anyone approaching Strathmore from the south is advised to take a bearing SSW of the lamp on Third Street, and pass it on the starboard beam. The "coldest pollution" will then be dead ahead, and a course can be held on it. Failure to observe these instructions may result in shipwreck. Those who spend too much time in local hostilities may see more than three lights, but take the direction by the nose.

At the present rate of progress, Strathmore streets will be properly lit by 1926, and by that time the majority of the present residents will have gone to a place where street lights are unnecessary.

HER GRACEFUL DANCING ENTERTAINS PARIS

Paris, mecca for thousands of tourists from every part of the world, was lately treated to a bit of the most classic dancing it has seen in many a month. Said beautiful gymnast—given with a certain grace and rhythm of action that astounded even the most critical of aesthetic dancing exponents in the French metropolis—were performed by Miss Lisa Duncan.

Miss Duncan—whose symphonic contour and beauty you see pictured above—is an American. She is a pupil of the famous Isadora Duncan, who long has been recognized as, perhaps, the world's foremost aesthetic dancing star. Under the latter's tutelage, the youthful Miss Lisa made such marked progress that but few of her friends were surprised over her recent Paris success.

Namaka Notes

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. H. Johnson on Friday. Owing to the special nature of the meeting, no invitation had been extended to husbands and friends of the members, and a large number were present. Among the business transacted was the setting of the Harvest. Thanksgiving services for Sunday, November 1st, and the supper for an early date in that month. An interesting address was given by Rev. A. H. Rowe, including an account of the first Presbytery of the United Church of Canada, which met in Calgary last month. The president then expressed the regrets of the members at Miss Sims' intended resignation as Secretary of the L. A., which post she has filled with much efficiency since the organization of the society, and wishing her every happiness in the future. A social hour followed, which took the form of a "saloon" for Miss Margaret. Little Katherine McKean and Marshall Watt, looking very cute in bridal costume, drew in a pretty decorated wagon loaded with gifts. Mrs. Rowe playing the opening strains of the bridal march. The gifts were very numerous, and both lovely and useful. Musical items were given by Mrs. Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. Wooster, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

A special lantern service will be given on Sunday next by Rev. A. Rowe.

Mrs. Holmes and family have left for Calgary, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Dave Thomson spent last week with friends in Calgary.

Miss Tim's spent the week end visiting friends at Milo.

Miss Margaret Watson, of Calgary, spent Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Spurgeon left during the week to visit friends in Saskatchewan.

Mr. Lee, of Glendon, has moved to Namaka to fill the vacancy made by the removal of Andy Nowicki to Cluny.

Mr. Chester Edwards, of Milo, was a visitor to Namaka during the week.

Mrs. H. Brown left on Friday for Spokane, Wash., where she will visit her sister.

AEROPLANE ASSISTANCE IN FIGHTING INSECTS

—o—

The aeroplane has proved itself valuable in aiding the ceaseless fight against insect pests. Speaking of flights that were made for scouting purposes, Dr. J. M. Swaine, in charge of the Division of Forest Insects of the Entomological Branch of the Dept. of Agriculture, says that it was possible to obtain valuable information upon the areas of infestation and also to locate blocks of spruce and balsam which could be expected to suffer attack next season. These flights covered the area west and north to Lake Fenisaming, where the outbreak was spreading and also west and north-east of the lake, where infestation has been acute for two years. From a height of 2,500 feet it was possible to determine types of timber and to locate the blocks of spruce and balsam accurately. Information received from a few days' flying would have taken two men more than six months to acquire by ground survey.
